

Project Timeline

Vast experience with projects big and small has refined our process. The total length of time required complete a project depends entirely on its scope. However, every kitchen renovation follows these steps leading up to the start of construction.

What We Do

What You Do

Start

Learn more about the scope of the project.
 Turn inspiration into ideas for materials, patterns, and color.

Complete our measuring guide.
 Take lots of photos of your kitchen.
 Share inspirational photos with your designer.

Week 1-2

Share design solutions.
 Present 'Three Column Budget Analysis' along with retainer agreement.

Retainer Due – Commitment made to the design phase of project!
 Start appliance shopping!

Finalize kitchen measurements and final drawings.
 Confirm cabinet interior accessories.
 Finalize flow, fit and function of space.

Finalize appliances.
 Start selecting materials (cabinetry, flooring, countertops, lighting, etc.)

Week 3-4

Revise drawings (if needed).
 Designer confirms design plans.

Finalize selections: cabinets, countertops, hardware, tile, etc.

Present final pricing and contracts
 Collaborate on project timeline and delivery dates.
 Order products.

Contract signing day.
 Down payment is due.

Week 5-6

Receive and store products.
 Schedule product deliveries.

Pack up all necessary items.
 Final payment due when cabinetry arrives.

Deliver cabinets and installation packet.
 Demolition and construction project begins!

Pardon any dust and noise.
 Practice patience as we build your exciting new kitchen!

Week 8-12

Say hello to your new kitchen!

4-5 Months

Time to throw a party!